

Behavioral Assessments that Really Work

TraitSet® is a suite affordable, online assessments used to help prescreen job applicants specifically working in the service and hospitality industry. TraitSet® was intentionally developed for the fast-paced, hard-driven service industry

Employers can choose from a comprehensive list of Behavioral Assessments that include:

Work Ethic & Integrity, Customer Service, Sales Potential, Leadership & Management, Ready to Work, Working with Numbers, and Antagonistic Behavior

Want to know the chances of an applicant being successful before the Interview?

TraitSet® can!

“TraitSet® measures personality traits of applicants. However, unlike many other commercially available personality tests, TraitSet™ goes beyond measuring general aspects of personality style and focuses only on the specific aspects of behavior that are important to work, training and on-the-job success.”

Dr. Neil Christiansen, PhD
Society of Industrial and Organizational Psychologists

TraitSet® is designed to be easy to use, accurate about work-related behavior, and fast in delivery of results. Through up to date web service technology you can have applicants take the assessment and retrieve their scores in seconds!